After breakfast at our hotel, you will have free time to explore the city sight, or you can join alternatively to the Napoli Pompei tour. We will go to the south of the country to see the amazing Naples and the historic city of Pompei. Our tour will start with the legend of Pompeii. Seeing the smoke coming out of the Vesuvius volcano in 79 A.D., the people crowded into the ships and tried to escape, never to return. After the shaking that lasted for 20 minutes, the rising sea threw the ships into the hot lava and destroyed them. The people who stayed in the city fled to their houses, the deadly gases coming out of the volcano caused them to suffocate in an instant. Then the ashes from the volcano covered the city and Pompei disappeared with its 20,000 inhabitants. For about 2,000 years, those magnificent houses, villas, frescoes, statues, wall paintings were buried in ashes.
When the archaeologists discovered the city, they found the baked bread in the oven and the dead, petrified of whatever they were doing at the time. Pompeii, with its agora, theater, and temples, is the Italian city of Ephesus, the magnificent installation of a destroyed city unearthed during excavations. Seeing these petrified people accompanied by an Italian and English guide is the most important cultural trip to learn about life in those days.
After the tour, we have a lunch break in Pompeii, and then we will arrive in Naples following the Via Nuova Marina Port Road. After a tour of Chiesa della Pieta dei Turchini, the oldest cathedral in the city, free time to shop in Via Medina, the city's central shopping street. The city of Naples established in its place invites you to the city of Sophia Loren. Hosting approximately 20 million tourists a year, Pompeii and Naples is an image you will remember for many years. We will return to the Rome hotel in the end of the tour. Overnight at our hotel.
