ITINERARY

Day 1 I NAIROBI (Sunday, November 8, 2026)

Welcome to Kenya! As known as “Capital of African Safari” this amazing and wild country welcomes you right from the heart! Your beautiful tour starts with meet and greet at the reception of the hotel where the Tour Leader will explain you the details and you get to meet your fellow travelers. Make sure your camera roll has enough space as every corner of the cities you're about to see will truly amaze you with its wildlife and nature. Kenya is also known for the Big Five and the Great Wildebeest Migration. It's also known for its world record breaking athletes, rich biodiversity and great safari destinations. It is being known as a home to Lupita Nyong'o and Barrack Obama. The most famous foods in Kenya are Nyama Choma and Githeri.
This week you will be taken care of by our professional tour leaders who will guide you through safaris, traditions, and cuisine of this fabulous African culture.
After meeting with your tour leader, you will have free time to explore the city sight. Overnight stay at our hotel.

Day 2 I NAIROBI (Monday, November 9, 2026)

After breakfast at our hotel, we will depart for panoramic city tour. After the city tour you will have free time to explore the city sight, or you can join alternatively to the Daphne Sheldrick Elephant Orphanage and Giraffe Center tour. First we will go to Daphne Sheldrick Elephant Orphanage to learn about how the orphan elephants, raised by the orphanage, are later released into the wild. Elephant calves are brought here from all over the country to receive specialized care from highly dedicated staff. Perhaps, you'll arrive there just in time to see them being exercised and bathed. Then, drive towards the Ngong Hills for a tour of the Karen Blixen Museum, once the farmhouse of the prominent author of Out of Africa. After our lunch, continue to Kazuri Beads Workshop, which started in 1975 as a tiny workshop making ceramic beads by hand. Today, this center produces fine examples of genuine African jewelry out of clay gathered from nearby Mt. Kenya. End the day at the Giraffe Centre where you hand-feed the Rothschild Giraffe, an endangered species, from an elevated feeding platform and learn more about their extensive conservation efforts. Then we will go to Giraffe Center, In an atmosphere where modern life and wild nature are more intertwined than anywhere else, you can feed the giraffes with your hands and get more detailed and interesting information about these interesting friends whose height can exceed five meters. You can also have the opportunity to observe another species, such as the warthog, that lives together with giraffes, but unlike them, is small and short. We will turn back to the hotel after the tour. Overnight at our hotel.
Daphne Sheldrick Elephant Orphanage and Giraffe Center tour with lunch: $ 90

Day 3 I NAIROBI - SAMBURU NATIONAL PARK (Tuesday, November 10, 2026)

After breakfast at our hotel, departure to Samburu National Park, a spectacular 60 square mile reserve known for its unique wildlife, rarely found in other Kenyan parks. Here, view different species of giraffe, zebra, beisa oryx and the long necked gerenuk, along with lion, cheetah, and leopard. Besides the numerous varieties of wildlife found in this game reserve, the park is also a bird haven. Arrive in Samburu, with its arid hills, leading to the lush forested ravine of the Ewaso Nyiro River. Along these river banks, the majority of the animals gather for the promise of water. This evening, set out on your first game drive and watch the colorful African sunset before returning to the camp in time for dinner. Overnight at our lodge.

Day 4 I SAMBURU NATIONAL PARK (Wednesday, November 11, 2026)

After breakfast at our lodge, Game drive today in the midst of this rugged and beautiful semi-arid desert of northern Kenya. Perhaps you'll see a lion, ostrich, or even a family of elephants wandering the hills. After lunch at the lodge, an afternoon drive takes you to a different area of the park. Return to the lodge for leisure time. Tonight, after dinner, an interesting lecture and discussion with a Samburu naturalist. You'll learn more about the principles and tribal traditions of the villagers living in the northern foothills of Mount Kenya. Overnight at our lodge.

Day 5 I SAMBURU NATIONAL PARK - LAKE NAKURU (Thursday, November 12, 2026)

After breakfast at the lodge, we drive to Lake Nakuru, the fourth largest park in Kenya. Established around the town of Nakuru in 1961 after settling in our lodges, this park is home to millions of flamingos and has an appearance that gives the impression of a lake painted pink. We begin to enjoy one of the most beautiful landscapes in Kenya. Although the lake owes its color to flamingos; It is also home to a very large family consisting of species such as white and black rhinoceros, giraffe, all kinds of antelope, lion, leopard, African buffalo, hyena, cheetah, jackal, zebra, wild boar and baboon. Overnight at our lodge.

Day 6 I LAKE NAKURU - MASAI MARA (Friday, November 13, 2026)

After breakfast in our lodge, departure to Masai Mara, one of the most popular natural parks in Kenya and the only one in the world due to the species it contains. We will arrive in Masai Mara, we will move on to realize our first safari. One of the most popular natural parks and frequented safari destinations not only in Kenya but also in the world, the Masai Mara ('Mara' as the locals call it) covers an area of 580 square mile. Witnessing astonishing images of wildlife; In addition to the lion, leopard, rhinoceros, buffalo and elephant called “Big 5”; You will immerse yourself in the fascinating atmosphere of seeing creatures such as cheetah, giraffe, impala, and hippopotamus and crocodile in the Mara river in their natural habitats. Since it is the end point of the famous great migration in Africa, 'Mara', which brings together almost all of the species on the continent in the same geography, is also home to the Sergenti National Park. Before our unforgettable trip to the Masai Mara, don't forget to take your binoculars with you to observe these extraordinary sights up close! At the end of the day, return to the lodge for the night. Dinner and overnight at our lodge.

Day 7 I MASAI MARA (Saturday, November 14, 2026)

After breakfast in our lodge, you will have free time, or alternatively our guests can witness the wildlife of the Masai Mara from the sky by participating in the Balloon Safari tour. They can combine this unique region of the earth, which has hosted many movies, with the fire-balloon experience. Sunrise from a different perspective; You will greet them when the hustle and bustle of wildlife is below you. During this interesting air journey that will take approximately 1 hour, you can fly over elephants, wild buffaloes or a herd of lions, and immortalize these moments that will never be erased from your memories with beautiful photographs.
Following the tour, transfer to our lodge. You will have free time, or you can join alternatively to the Masai tribe tour, which is the center of attention with its colorful clothes and traditional dances in the afternoon. We will take action for our sunset safari. With the end of the day, which offers different experiences. We will return to the lodge after the tour.
Dinner and overnight at our lodge.
Balloon Safari: $ 500
Maasai Tribe tour : $ 50

Day 8 I MASAI MARA - NAIROBI (Sunday, November 15, 2026)
